Role – Creative Multimedia Assistant (Internship)

About the AT Creative Group

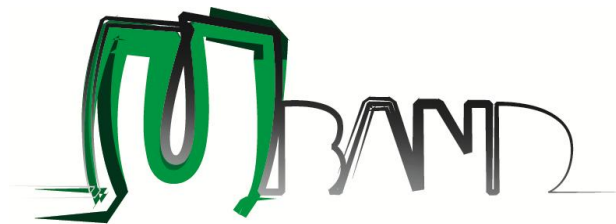

AT Creative is a fast-growing Creative Digital Media and Marketing Company based in London. Established in 2006/7 as Max Bannerman Ltd, the company has since rebranded and has grown very quickly and has been involved in implementing marketing campaigns for SME's across London. The company was a featured exhibitor at the 2010/11 Business Start Up Conference – Earls Court (the UK's largest Business Exhibition) and has since been growing its product offering and workforce to meet the demands of the UK's entrepreneurial boom.

UBand is a newly launched Music Media Specialist. Established in early 2011, UBand is a fresh, young and exciting company. Having been established for little over 6 months, UBand has worked with some of the UK's most promising rising stars, as well as established musicians, such as DJ Premier, and Method Man. UBand is now expanding to also offer an online TV channel that will cater originally produced programmes for the UK's blossoming music industry.

The AT Creative Internship Programme provides an opportunity for young and talented individuals to become a part of this growing company. Interns will gain experience and knowledge, and also be a part of a exciting growth period for a rising organisation. AT Creative will provide on the job training and believes in enhancing and enriching the skills of all employees.
